Memdm. About the beginning of the year 1703 Mr Wanley Translated Ostervalds Catechism. for wch the Society was pleasd to present him wth. 10 Gui: . . 10„15. . .

At which time I proposed to the Society to print that Book at my own Cost and Charge, upon Condicon, that the profitt arising from the Impression Shod. be applyed toward the Support of a Charity School at Kilmersdon in Somersetshire; which proposal was agreed to./

The School was Accordingly Set up Novr. 15: 1703. and has contind. ever since, to the great Advantage of that Parish and Neighbourhood

	£	s	d
The yearly Charge to the Master is	20.	00.	00
The rent of the School room ꝑ Annu . .	2„	. . . .

Besides Books and Writing paper for the Children

In my Proposal to the Society I promised to reimburse them the 10 Guineas above mentioned, given to Mr Wanley, when the . . . . Impression was sold off./

There are yet some hundreds of the Books unsold; but I remember and Acknowledge the debt, and shall take care to discharge it according to my Promise vizt. . . . . 10„15. . .

Octob.r 16. 1710.

Examined this Account, which we find to be right. We have also examined the Quarterly payments of the several Members in the Book for that purpose from the Mark Z/4: to the mark 6/6: together with Admission-Money and Benefactions since the last Audit Nov: 16. 1709. and we find the Ballance due to M.r Treasurer to be one hundred & seven pounds five Shillings and Nine pence half penny

1715/6 January 4th. Examined this Account which we find to be right. We have also examined the Quarterly payments of the several Members in the Book for that purpose from the Mark f/f to the Mark g/g together with Admission Money and Benefactions, since the last Audit the 4th January 1714/5 — and we find the Ballance in the hands of the Reverend Mr Shute Treasurer, to be Twenty eight pounds Two Shillings & nine pence halfpenny ——	28	2	9
